SECTION FOUR SCOPE OF SERVICES

Florida Housing was directed by the U.S. Department of the Treasury (Treasury) to create and administer foreclosure prevention assistance programs that address the unique issues of our state. These programs include:

- Unemployment Mortgage Assistance Program (UMAP) will provide up to twelve (12) months of payments to the mortgage lender to assist eligible unemployed/underemployed borrowers with their first mortgage until they can resume payments on their own.
- Mortgage Loan Reinstatement Program (MLRP) will be used to help bring a delinquent mortgage current for eligible homeowners.
- The Modification Enabling Pilot Program (MEP) provides assistance to qualified homeowners by permanently modifying the borrower's primary mortgage to achieve a monthly total housing payment that does not exceed 35% of the borrower's adjusted gross monthly income.
- The Principal Reduction Program (PRP) provides assistance to severely underwater homeowners who have been honoring their promise to make their mortgage payments by reducing the amount of unpaid principal balance on their first mortgage to an amount that is in line with the current value of the property, subject to program limits.
- The Elderly Mortgage Assistance Program (ELMORE) provides assistance to senior Florida homeowners who, after having received all of the equity proceeds that they were due under their reverse mortgage loans, are at risk of foreclosure due to their inability to pay property taxes, flood and hazard insurance premiums, special assessments, association dues, attorney's fees, property inspections, and other contractually required charges ("Property Charges") on their homes as required under the terms of their reverse mortgages, to the extent such charges are payable from an escrow or reserve account maintained by the servicer or have been advanced by the servicer of the reverse mortgage.

The Contractor shall perform and render the services identified below as an independent Contractor and not as an agent, representative, or employee of Florida Housing.
