SECTION FOUR SCOPE OF SERVICES

A. Background

Florida Housing is a public corporation, and a public body corporate and politic created by Section 420.504, Fla. Stat. As a financial institution, it is the state's housing finance agency (HFA) and administers federal and state resources, to provide low-interest financing and down payment assistance to homebuyers, and to finance the development and preservation of affordable homeowner and rental housing.

In recent years, Florida Housing has experienced challenges with recruiting top candidates for open positions within the organization. The ideal Respondent will have experience placing professionals with backgrounds in advocacy, banking, communications, construction management, finance, Florida law, information technology, legislative affairs, procurement, and/or public policy in public sector positions.

B. Services to be Provided by the Contractor

In the event that multiple contracts are awarded under this RFQ, Florida Housing will only engage one Contractor per position at a time. If none of the proposed candidates are successful, Florida Housing will engage a different Contractor under contract.

The Contractor will be expected to:

1. Within two business days of the initial request, schedule a time to meet with Florida Housing's human resources and pertinent management staff to understand the requirements for the needed position. This will include qualifications such as professional credentials, personal characteristics, or other job-specific information deemed relevant to the search. This will also include a discussion of the unit's culture, work structure and position-specific needs. Specific time frames for the recruitment process will be addressed at this meeting; however, Contractors should expect that the position will need to be filled as soon as possible.
2. Market each open position in multiple ways, including, but not limited to online advertising, email advertising and direct candidate sourcing.
3. Identify a minimum of three qualified candidates for each request. If the Contractor cannot identify the minimum number of candidates, they must notify Florida Housing as soon as possible and provide detail of the specific challenges being faced.

4. Ensure that each qualified candidate meets the minimum position requirements; is willing to work within the salary rates provided; and is willing to relocate to the Tallahassee, Florida area, if necessary.

5. Provide a resume and cover letter from the Contractor introducing the qualified candidate. Senior-level positions may require additional documentation regarding the candidate's professional history.

6. Conduct reference checks for top candidates using forms and questions provided by Florida Housing.

7. Respond to any requests for information from Florida Housing e.g., status updates on the recruitment process or document requests within one business day.

C. Services to be Provided by Florida Housing

At the initial meeting, Florida Housing will provide the Contractor with relevant position data to include job description (including responsibilities, title, reporting relationships, experience requirements, requirements, certifications, education requirements, salary range, and timing). Florida Housing shall also ensure that the Company has sufficient information to share with candidates to assist with making informed decisions and will conduct criminal history checks for top candidates.
