

Request for Consideration of Underwriting for Tax Exemption

As the Authorized Principal Representative of _____, I intend to apply for the ad valorem tax exemption as provided for in 196.1978(4), F.S. for
_____. I hereby request that Florida Housing Finance Corporation
_____. I hereby request that Florida Housing Finance Corporation ("Florida Housing") notify the credit underwriter assigned to this Development of my request to proceed with the consideration of the tax exemption in my Credit Underwriting Report. I certify that:

- The Development meets all requirements to be eligible for the real estate tax exemption under 196.1978(4), F.S. including the date that the Development was "substantially completed."
- I understand that the underwriting process does not automatically qualify the Applicant for the tax exemption.
- I understand that the determination of qualification for the tax exemption will be made through an application process with the local property appraiser, who will review the application for exemption and determine whether the application for exemption meets all requirements of the statute to entitle the Applicant to an exemption.
- I understand that the underwriting process may cause financing sources provided by Florida Housing to be sized down.
- I understand that I may owe additional Compliance Monitoring Fees and will pay those accordingly, before Florida Housing will record the LURA and other applicable documents, if applicable.
- I will be subject to additional LURA provisions including a 99-year extended use period and penalty language as required by the statute.
