The Operational Contact Person is optional.

4. General Development Information

a. Name of the proposed Development

b. County of the proposed Development

c. Development Category

The Development Category must be New Construction, which means building Community Residential Homes or Supported Living Units.

d. Development Location

The Applicant must state the Development Location.

e. The Applicant must state whether the proposed Development is a Community Residential Home or whether it consists of Supported Living Units.

Applicants that propose a Community Residential Home that will qualify as an Intensive Behavior Community Residential Home must provide the Provider Status for Behavior Focus and Intensive Behavior Residential Habilitation document signed by the Agency for Persons with Disabilities. During the selection process, there will be a preference for Community Residential Homes.

f. Development Type

If the Applicant is proposing Supported Living Unit(s), the Applicant must select from single family, duplex, triplex, or small garden complex of four to six units. If the Development Type of single family is selected, the proposed Development may only consist of one Single Family unit.

If the Applicant is proposing a Community Residential Home, the proposed Development Type must be single family.

g. Shared Housing

For purposes of this RFA, Shared Housing means a rental dwelling unit that is shared by Persons with Developmental Disabilities who are not related or significant others. Each Resident must have non-exclusive access to shared living space, consisting at a minimum of a kitchen and a living/dining area. Each Resident in a Shared Housing Unit shall sign a separate lease and shall be considered a separate household for the purposes of determining compliance with set-aside commitments, income eligibility, and rent payments. Note: All Community Residential Homes are Shared Housing.

h. Number of Residents

For purposes of this RFA, Resident means person living in the Unit who is a Person with a Developmental Disability.

In a Community Residential Home, there must be at least four Residents but no more than six Residents in the Development.

In Supported Living Units that are Shared Housing, the proposed Development may serve no more than ten Residents, and no more than three Residents may reside in a Unit. In Supported Living Units that are not Shared Housing, one household shall reside in each unit.

i. Number of Units

In Developments consisting of Supported Living Units, if the Development Type of Single Family is selected, the maximum is one unit (i.e., one Single Family home.) For all other Development Types in Developments consisting of Supported Living Units, there must be four to six Units in the Development. In Supported Living Units that consist of non-Shared Housing Units, the lesser of three non-Shared Housing Units or 50 percent of the non-Shared Housing Units in the proposed Development shall serve Persons with Developmental Disabilities as Permanent Supportive Housing.

In Community Residential Homes, each Application is limited to one Community Residential Home, which shall be, for the purposes of this RFA, considered one Unit.

5. Set-Aside Commitments

a. Shared Housing

All Applications proposing Community Residential Homes and Applications proposing Supported Living Units that propose Shared Housing shall meet the following commitments:

- 100 percent of the Residents must have incomes at or below 60 percent of the area median income (AMI).
- Required ELI Commitments

Number of Total Residents in the Proposed Development	Minimum Number of ELI Residents
4 – 6 Residents	A minimum of 2 ELI Residents
7 – 8 Residents	A minimum of 3 ELI Residents
9 – 10 Residents	A minimum of 4 ELI Residents

b. Non-Shared Housing

Non-Shared Housing Units are Supported Living Units in which a Person(s) with a Developmental Disability receives Supported Living Services and resides alone or with others as one household. Applications that propose non-Shared Housing shall meet the following commitments:

- If any units are non-Shared Housing Units, the lesser of three non-Shared Housing Units or 50 percent of the non-Shared Housing Units must either serve a Resident or a household consisting of at least one Resident that meets the definition of Persons with Developmental Disabilities
- 100 percent of the Residents must have incomes at or below 60 percent of the area median income (AMI).
- Required ELI Commitments

Number of Total Units in the Proposed Development	Minimum Number of ELI Units
4 – 5 Units	A minimum of 2 ELI Units
6 Units	A minimum of 3 ELI Units

c. Affordability Period for all Units - Commitment to income and ELI set-asides for a minimum of 15 years

6. Readiness to Proceed

a. Site Control

The Applicant must provide either (i) a recorded deed or certificate of title showing the Applicant as the sole grantee; or (ii) a lease with a term of at least 15 years after the Application Deadline which shows the Applicant as the lessee or sub-lessee; or (iii) a purchase contract showing the Applicant as the purchaser; or (iv) a written agreement from the current owner of the site, whereby the owner agrees or otherwise commits to grant, donate or gift the site to the Applicant.

b. Ability to Proceed

Applications will be required to demonstrate the Ability to Proceed elements (zoning, electricity, roads, water, sewer/package treatment/septic tank) within 21 Calendar Days of the date of an Invitation to Enter Credit Underwriting.

7. Required Design and Construction Features

a. Federal Requirements and State Building Code Requirements

b. Additional Construction Features

(1) Shared Housing Construction Features

(2) Adding bedroom(s) and bathroom facilities for non-Residential use:

Grant funding may also be used to construct one suite consisting of one additional bedroom and one additional bathroom for family or caregivers or staff, but not for Resident care.

c. Green Building, Accessibility, Adaptability, Universal Design and Visitability Features

d. Recommendation to Applicants during Construction

8. Resident Community-Based Services Coordination (Mandatory only for Applicants requesting funding for Community Residential Homes)

9. Maximum Eligible Funding Award Amount

Applications will initially be awarded $1,436,500. This funding will be used for the hard costs associated with construction as described below, and the Predevelopment and Credit Underwriting Costs described below.

a. Predevelopment and Credit Underwriting

The Corporation will pay the following expenses directly and deduct the appropriate amounts from the award:

(1) A plan and cost review

(2) Accessibility review

b. Fees

(1) Application Fee is $800

(2) Other fees are outlined in the RFA

10. Qualifying Financial Assistance Preference

a. Cash Funding Equals at least 5 percent of the Award (i.e., $71,825)

To qualify for the Qualifying Financial Assistance Preference, the Applicant must state the amount of cash loans, cash grants and/or cash on hand ("Cash Funding") from local or other non-Corporation sources (all of which for purposes of this provision will be considered to be "Qualifying Financial Assistance"). If the Non-Corporation Funding total sources are equal to at least 5 percent of the Award (i.e., $71,825), the Applicant will receive funding preference

b. Donation of Land by a Local Government

To qualify, the Total Development Cost cannot consist of any land costs during scoring or during the credit underwriting process; the entire site must have been donated or will be donated from a Local Government to the Applicant; and, when submitted, the site control documentation must reflect one of the following:

- The eligible contract must reflect that a Local Government is the seller and the Applicant is the buyer, and the price of the land must be $10 or less;
- The deed must reflect the Local Government as the grantor, the transaction must have occurred no more than 12 months prior to the Application Deadline, the price of the land must have been $10 or less, and the closing statement must be provided demonstrating that the price of land was $10 or less; or
- The eligible lease must reflect a Local Government as the Lessor and the Applicant as the Lessee, and the lease payments must equal $10 a year or less.

If the Applicant qualifies for this preference through the donation of land and is awarded funding under this RFA, the Applicant will not receive any Corporation funding towards the cost of the land.

Note: In-kind donations, waivers of any fees, and any funding from the Corporation are not considered Qualifying Financial Assistance, although they can be used to help reduce costs in the construction of the proposed Development.

Impact Scoring

Impact Scoring section allows for Applicants to provide detailed responses about the Development. Each response must address the specific criteria identified in the corresponding description. When scoring responses, Florida Housing will only consider the written responses provided in the document uploaded with the Application. When assigning points for each Impact Scoring section, only the response for that particular requirement will be considered. Information in other scored sections will not be considered. It is recommended to account for all criteria for each response, even if it requires repeating information in multiple narrative responses.

1. Demographic Populations to be Served (No Points Awarded)
2. Describe the Operating/Managing Permanent Supportive Housing Experience (Maximum of 40 Points)

All narrative scoring responses will be limited to 2 pages.

3. Access to Community-Based Services and Resources (Maximum of 60 Points)

All impact scoring responses will be limited to 2 pages.

Scoring consideration will be given to whether the Applicant has provided the proposed Development's Location, and therefore is able to describe the actual Resident access to services in relation to the Development's physical location; or whether the Applicant has yet to obtain a site and is only able to describe the Applicant's intention for each Resident's access to the following services.

a. Community Residential Homes

- (1) Private Transportation for Residents of Community Residential Homes (Maximum of 24 Points)
- (2) Access to Groceries, Education, Household Shopping, and Employment for Residents in Community Residential Homes (Maximum of 12 Points)
- (3) Specific Healthcare and/or Supportive Services Needs of Each Intended Resident in Community Residential Homes (Maximum of 24 Points)

b. Applicants proposing Supported Living Units

- (1) Access to Groceries, Education, Household Shopping, and Employment for Residents in Supported Living Units (Maximum of 24 Points)

- (2) Specific Healthcare and/or Supportive Services Needs of Each Intended Resident in Supported Living Units (Maximum of 24 Points)
- (3) Other Best Practices that will be implemented in Supported Living Units (Maximum of 12 Points)

Section Five – Scoring and Selection Process

- 1. List of all Eligibility and Point items
- 2. Sorting Order

Applications that received at least 101 points* and met all other Eligibility Items (“eligible Applications”) will be first be sorted by score. In the event that multiple Applications receive the same number of points, tie-breakers will be used in the following order to determine how these Applications are sorted in the funding selection process.

- a. Community Residential Homes Preference
- b. Qualifying Financial Assistance Preference

If the Non-Corporation Funding total sources are equal to at least 5 percent of the Award (i.e., $71,825), the Applicant will receive funding preference

- c. Florida Job Creation Preference
- d. Lottery

*Applications must achieve at least 87.5 percent of the total amount of points available in the RFA (i.e., $115 \times 0.875 = 100.625$, rounded up to 101), to be eligible for funding.
