Veterans Employment Information

The fedshirevets.gov website contains information for job-seeking veterans, veterans currently employed by the Federal Government, and Federal human resources specialists. This site will assist individuals when determining a veteran's special rights and privileges for Federal civil service employment. The link above contains the most recent information and developments regarding Veterans employment.

HUD Veteran Resource Center - \(HUDVET\) - CPD – HUD

HUD's Office of Community Planning and Development (CPD), in consultation with national veteran service organizations, has established a Veteran Resource Center (HUDVET). The goal is to provide veterans and their family members with information on HUD's community-based programs and services. Veterans can find a range of resources on this site, including:

- Vet Preference Policy
- Information on the Service Members Civil Relief Act
- Social Security Administration benefits

HudVet is also a source of information on HUD programs to combat homelessness, domestic violence, community and economic development, and affordable housing.

National Coalition for Homeless Veterans

The National Coalition for Homeless Veterans (NCHV) is a nonprofit organization that serves as the resource and technical assistance center for a national network of community-based service providers and local, state and federal agencies that provide emergency and supportive housing, food, health services, job training and placement assistance, legal aid and case management support for hundreds of thousands of homeless veterans each year.
